Introduction

The Remuneration Report describes the realisation of the remuneration of the company’s Board of Directors, Managing Director, hereinafter referred to as President & CEO, and the deputy to the Managing Director, hereinafter referred to as the deputy to the President & CEO, during the previous financial year. The remuneration of the rest of the executive management group is described on the company’s website.

The Remuneration Report is published simultaneously with the financial statements, the Report of the Board of Directors and the Corporate Governance Statement. The report is presented to the annual general meeting and it is available on the company’s website.

Remuneration Principles

Fingrid’s remuneration principles are written down in the company’s Remuneration Policy for Governing Bodies, which the general meeting approved in its meeting on 20 March 2020.

Remuneration at Fingrid is guided by the creation of shareholder value, good performance in carrying out basic tasks and the responsibility targets set for the company. The owners', especially the state ownership policy's and Ilmarinen's, principles have been taken into account in remuneration. Remuneration must be reasonable, fair and competitive.

Fingrid's Remuneration Policy for Governing Bodies, as it pertains to the members of the company's Board of Directors, complies with the principles set forth by the state's and the other owners' policies, which require remuneration to be transparent, reasonable and market-based.

As regards to the remuneration of the President & CEO, the deputy to the President & CEO, as well as the other members of the executive management group, the company abides by the same principles as those pertaining to the members of the Board of Directors and by the remuneration principles outlined in the company in general. The President & CEO's remuneration metrics are mostly the same as those for the other members of the executive management group and the company's personnel overall. In addition, the same principles are applied to the President & CEO's remuneration as those applied to the entire personnel, for example when determining the employee benefits.

Compliance with the Remuneration Policy in 2023

In 2023, the remuneration of Fingrid's Board of Directors, President & CEO and other executives complied with the company's Remuneration Policy. Remuneration is a key incentive for Fingrid to guide, motivate and engage the members of its Board of Directors and management. Competitive remuneration is an essential tool for hiring competent executives to the company.

Through competitive compensation and remuneration, we encourage our executives and other personnel to work productively and to develop operations and steer work towards achieving strategic goals. Successful remuneration also promotes commitment to the company.

The same remuneration policies are followed in terms of the personnel as for the executives: market orientation and rewards for good performance. The market orientation and competitiveness of the fixed salary results in engagement with the company. Short-term remuneration encourages the achievement of annual goals in accordance with the strategy. The management's long-term incentives are also intended to steer the realisation of the strategy and increase the shareholder value as well as ensure the senior management's commitment to the company.

The bonuses paid are in line with the company's performance level and the company's financial development. The development of the performance level of a regulated company in a natural monopoly position must not only be assessed from a financial standpoint. These types of performance indicators are described in the company's annual report. The development of the Board of Directors' and President & CEO's remuneration in relation to the average remuneration change of the company's employees and the company's financial performance over the five previous financial years is described in the attached table.

The CEO-to-employee annual median income ratio in 2023 was 7:1, and the female-to-male annual median income ratio was 0,9:1.

Remuneration of the Board of Directors in 2023

The general meeting decides on the Board's remuneration based on a proposal made by the Shareholders' Nomination Board. The remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors consists of fixed monthly fees and meeting fees. An increased fixed fee is paid to the Board Chair and Deputy Chair. Meeting fees are paid to Board members also for attending the various committees' and the Nomination Board's meetings.

The decisions of the general meeting concerning the Board members' remuneration are published in the same stock exchange release as the other decisions made by the general meeting.

Fingrid's general meeting approved the fees for the members of the Board on 31 March 2023. The fees did not change.

Other Financial Commitments

There are no share or share-based remuneration schemes, supplementary pension schemes or other financial benefits in place for the members of the Board of Directors. Fingrid also does not pay pension fees for the Board's remuneration. None of the Board members are in an employment or service relationship with the company.

Remuneration of the President & CEO and deputy in 2023

Fingrid's Board of Directors decides on the remuneration of the President & CEO and his deputy in accordance with the remuneration policy presented to the general meeting and based on the proposal of the remuneration committee.

Remuneration Components

The total remuneration of the President & CEO consisted of a fixed total salary and variable pay components, which were a one-year incentive scheme (max. 40 per cent of the fixed annual salary for the earnings year) and long-term incentive schemes (max. 40 per cent of the fixed annual salary).

The total remuneration of the deputy to the President & CEO consisted of a fixed total salary and variable pay components, which were a one-year incentive scheme (max. 25 per cent of the fixed annual salary for the earnings year) and long-term incentive schemes (max. 25 per cent of the fixed annual salary).

There was no share or share-based remuneration scheme or supplementary pension scheme in place for the President & CEO or his deputy on behalf of the company. The President & CEO and his deputy had the possibility to convert part of their monetary remuneration into a company car benefit in accordance with the car policy set up by the company.

The President & CEO's incentive schemes are based on a policy stance according to which the annual maximum limit for the total variable remuneration is 40 per cent of the remuneration recipient's fixed annual salary. If the company's and remuneration recipient's performance is exceptionally good, the total annual amount of remuneration can be, however, a maximum of 80 per cent of the fixed salary. This is also in line with the state ownership policy's stance on variable pay in unlisted commercial companies. The total maximum amount of variable remuneration for the deputy to the President & CEO is 50 per cent of the fixed salary.

In 2023, the President & CEO's total salary was EUR 27,700 per month at the end of the year. His salary was increased by EUR 1,700 during 2023. The total salary of the deputy to the President & CEO was some EUR 14,900 and her salary was increased by EUR 800 during 2023. The total salary of both the President & CEO and his deputy included a car benefit.

Further employment Terms and Conditions

The mutual period of notice was six months for Fingrid's President & CEO Jukka Ruusunen and four months for the deputy to the President & CEO Asta Sihvonen-Punkka in 2023. President & CEO Ruusunen's CEO contract additionally specified a nine-month redundancy compensation and his deputy Asta Sihvonen-Punkka a five-month redundancy compensation if the company were to dismiss the President & CEO or his deputy.

No separate compensation was paid to the President & CEO or to the deputy to the President & CEO for tasks related to Fingrid's subsidiaries or associated companies.

Short-term Incentive Schemes

The Board of Directors annually decides on the criteria for Fingrid’s President & CEO’s and the deputy CEO’s incentive schemes and their lower and upper limits.

Corporate responsibility plays a key role in the one-year incentive scheme. In 2023, the responsibility KPIs used in short-term remuneration were the customer NPS score and leadership indicator, with which the personnel’s commitment to and satisfaction with the company were measured. In addition, the personal performance of the President & CEO and his deputy were assessed through responsibility targets.

As a general rule, the variable remuneration components are paid in the beginning of the year following the earnings period in accordance with the payment date confirmed by the Board of Directors.

The bonuses paid in March 2023 based on the President & CEO’s and his deputy’s short-term incentive schemes for 2022 are described in the attached table.

Long-term Incentive Schemes

There is no share-based incentive scheme at Fingrid. Instead, the company applies overlapping three-year long-term incentive schemes.

Corporate responsibility plays an important role also when setting up long-term incentive schemes.

In the incentive schemes for 2020–2022 and for 2021–2023, all of the metrics were the company’s responsibility KPIs. The metrics were the extent of the disturbance caused to customers by outages in the power system, promoting the electricity market and creating shareholder value.

The result of the President & CEO’s long-term incentive scheme for 2020–2022 was 21 per cent and for the deputy, 13 per cent of the annual earnings. The merit pay was paid in March 2023.

The result of the President & CEO’s long-term incentive scheme for 2021–2023 was 30 per cent and for the deputy, 19 per cent of the annual earnings. The merit pay will be paid in March 2024.
