5. Regular data sources

Data is mainly collected from the data subject him/herself, from the data subject's employer, or from our stakeholders and suppliers with regard to their subcontractors. ICT systems collect user data. Data can also be obtained from other registers of the Registrar or from authorities.

6. Regular assignments of data

Data may be assigned to authorities according to the legal requirements.

7. The transfer of data outside the EU or EEA

Data in a register may be transferred outside the area of member states of the European Union or the European Economic Area, if this is necessary in terms of the purposes of processing the above-mentioned personal data or of the technical execution of the data processing. In that case, the transfer of the data complies with the requirements stipulated in the EU Data Protection Regulation.

8. Data protection

Data is protected by appropriate technical and organizational measures. The paper material is stored in a locked state. Electronic material is protected by technical measures and access to the systems is granted only to those persons for whom it is necessary for their work or function. Fingrid's personnel are bound by professional secrecy. Staff are trained and instructed in the lawful processing of personal data.

External data processors are also required to have adequate technical and organizational protection measures as well as a commitment to confidentiality.

9. Time for storing data

Data is processed and stored for the period of time necessary for accomplishing the original purpose or legal obligations.

10. Rights of the data subject

The data subject has the right to request access from the Registrar to personal data concerning him/herself, the right to request correction of his/her personal data, a limitation on processing and, in certain situations, also to receive the data he/she has given in machine-readable form.

The data subject has the right to have his/her data removed, insofar as the processing of the data is based on the consent of the data subject, or if the personal data is not required for the purposes described in Section 3. There is no right to the removal of data if Fingrid has a statutory obligation to keep the data, or if Fingrid needs the data to prepare, present or defend a legal claim.

A data subject may use his/her rights by contacting:

Fingrid Oyj / Antti Kivipuro
PO Box 530, 00101 Helsinki

E-mail: dpo@fingrid.fi

11. Automatic decision-making and profiling

The Registrar does not make decisions based on automatic processing.

12. Making a complaint to the supervisory data protection authority

If a data subject considers that the processing of his/her personal data breaches applicable legislation, or his/her statutory rights have been infringed, he/she may make a complaint about the matter to the Data Protection Ombudsman whose contact information can be found at the following address: <http://www.tietosuoja.fi/en/>.
